WELCOME

Thanks for enquiring about our private session program.

Below is some information that will answer most of the questions you may have. If there is something that we haven't answered please get in touch.

WHAT IS A PRIVATE SESSION?

A private session can be for yourself or a small group of friends who want preferential and individual coaching tailored to your needs. It is only you (or you and your friends) and one of the Snowboard Coach crew who is at your disposal for however long you have arranged.

WHO HAS A PRIVATE SESSION?

Anyone who has a hectic schedule, works long or unsocial hours or simply someone who prefers the privilege of individual professional coaching.

Our private clients range from TV celebs to Doctors to DJ's to people who simply just want to learn together at their own pace.

WHAT LEVEL DO I NEED TO BE TO HAVE A SESSION?

Ideally you have had a few lessons under your belt, maybe you can just about get down an indoor slope and you want us to get you going. The way a private works is that you tell us what you want to work on and we will make you ride better.

HOW LONG IS A PRIVATE SESSION?

The simple answer is as long as you want it to be. Sessions can range from our minimum time of 2 hours to a full day on the slopes. It can even be a series of 3 hour sessions spanning a whole month. The choice is yours. The joy of private sessions with us is that you tell us what you want, when you want it and how long you want it for.

As a special offer if you book and pay for 3 sessions in advance we will give you 5% off the overall price.

WHERE CAN I HAVE A PRIVATE SESSION?

Just like all our other courses we offer private sessions in the UK at the following venues:

- Tamworth Snow Dome
- Hemel Snow Centre

CAN I TAKE PRIVATE SESSIONS WITH YOU IN ANDORRA?

Yes you can - again just like in the UK we offer a bespoke set of private sessions to work around you when you are on holiday with us.

In Andorra we can accommodate beginners, so if you are just starting out at want to learn the correct way from the start - we got you covered.

For groups of 5 or more please email us to arrange a special per person price.

THE COSTS

WHAT DOES A PRIVATE SESSION COST IN UK?

Our private sessions offer extremely good value for money with the added benefit is that it's you and your friends getting the experience and training from one of the Snowboard Coach crew. We meet you prior to the session and help get you ready and can even get discount for you on new gear from the TSA if you are a regular customer.

You obviously get a more personal service than a group lesson as we are only there to teach you.

The prices below INCLUDE slope time for the duration of your private session at Tamworth Snowdome. They have new pricing for slope tickets at Hemel so please contact us for a specific price for any sessions at that venue.

The price indicated for 2 or more people is the TOTAL for the session.

2 hour session:

- 1 person = £170
- 2 persons = £235
- 3 persons = £275

3 hour session special :

- 1 person = £250
- 2 persons = £310
- 3 persons = £350

Special Offer: Book and pay for 3 sessions in advance and receive 5% discount on the total cost.

WHAT ABOUT IN ANDORRA?

Our on mountain private sessions take place in our home resort of Arinsal in Andorra. They work out cheaper than the UK as we don't have slope charges - you already have your lift pass.

You can tailor your sessions to fit in with your own itinerary for your holiday. The sessions must be pre-booked prior to arriving in resort. Ad-hoc lessons can be arranged on arrival but we will be less flexible with the times and days available.

The main difference is an hourly rate in EURO of 80 for 1 person. For more than 2 people we charge per extra person.

Again more than 1 person the total is SPLIT between you and not each. Price below are in EURO.

2 hour session:

- 1 person = 160
- 2 people = 180
- 3 people = 190

3 hour Session Special:

- 1 person = 240
- 2 people = 260
- 3 people = 270

For private lessons specifically with Ash - the director of Snowboard Coach - in the UK or in Andorra, please contact us as these can be arranged but on limited days and times due to other teaching commitments.

MORE INFORMATION

HOW DO I BOOK?

Simply email us with your requirements and we work together to tailor something to suit. What we will ask you for:

- Duration of the session
- How many sessions you would like
- Preferred days and times
- How many of you
- Ages of everyone taking part
- Your local snow centre (for UK sessions)
- Your (and the groups) level of snowboarding

All this information will allow us to put something to suit you either individually or as a group.

Additionally if you are requesting a session with us in Andorra then we will need to know your ideal dates and times of when you would like your private sessions in resort.

WHAT IF I NEED TO CHANGE TIMES?

We are pretty up front about our policy for re-scheduling private sessions. We understand that our private clients have ever changing workloads and will endeavour to meet any changes free of charge.

UK POLICY:

Should you book a session and then need to change the time but keep the same day, then as long as we have reasonable notice this wont be a problem and there will be no charge for re-scheduling.

If you have to change the date then again we will be as flexible as we can and we will re-schedule at no cost as long as we have more than 48 hours notice.

ANDORRA POLICY:

Again we will endeavour to re-schedule your session as long as we have reasonable notice. If this request comes during your time in resort then this will be a lot harder and will be subject to other sessions in our diary. If we can, we will. The cost will be a beer in our local bar.

If you are late or do not turn up for any session booked then no refund will be offered and/or the hours made up.

HOLIDAY IN ANDORRA:

If you are thinking of a great value holiday to Arinsal, or thinking of having a week away exploring and learning to ride less shit.... then ask us about our holiday only options, our winter riding weeks or even our "safari" style exploring weeks in Arinsal, Andorra.

With prices starting from around £675 for a week away with us, you wont find cheaper with what we offer. That's including 7 nights in B&B accommodation, return airport transfers, full 6 day lift pass. Prices from £995 to include all the above AND coaching for the week...

On top of this you also get a special Snowboard Coach wrist band giving you local prices in our favourite bars and restaurants in the village and up the mountain, making your week even better value for money.

And with the Snowboard Coach crew on hand prior to your holiday to ask any questions....you'll get a more personal service than from any of the commercial tour operators.

At the end of the day it's all about enjoying what we do and I wouldn't be here today if I didn't. I've spent 33 years of my life snowboarding and over 25 years teaching this sport that I love. I live in Arinsal and I love this place. But I still travel around in the UK in the summers, delivering courses and training...when I can afford the petrol!

So thanks for your enquiry, I hope we can help you ride better on one of our 1:1 sessions soon either in UK or Andorra.
